Dear Sharmin:

Congratulations! We are pleased to inform you of your 2013 Fall admission to the Graduate School and the PHD - Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering program at North Dakota State University.

The Graduate School requires that you accept or decline our offer of admission. Click here to indicate your decision. Your I-20 will not be issued until doing so.

I encourage you to consult with your adviser, Dr. Om Prakash Yadav at Om.Yadav@ndsu.edu, to make appropriate arrangements and plans for your graduate studies.

The department is in a position to offer you a Teaching Assistantship beginning 08/15/2013. The total amount being awarded is $10800.00 over a 9-month period provided your performance is acceptable and funding is available. In addition, you will receive a graduate tuition waiver.

Please refer to our online Graduate Bulletin for all policies and procedures relevant to graduate students. It can be found at www.ndsu.edu/gradschool/graduate\_bulletin/.

You will need to contact the International Student Adviser of the Office of International Programs immediately upon your arrival on our campus. The phone number is (701) 231-7895 or email ndsuiinternational@ndsu.edu.

Your student identification number is 0968663. Visit www.ndsu.edu/bisonconnection/connect/ for information on how to access your student account and the registration process. Click here to set up your IT Services, such as campus email and Blackboard. If you encounter problems, please contact the NDSU Help Desk at (701) 231-8685.

You can access information regarding orientation and tuition information by logging into the NDSU Graduate Admissions Center.

We look forward to our association with you as you work to achieve your graduate degree goals.

Sincerely,

David A. Wittrock, Ph.D.
Dean, College of Graduate and Interdisciplinary Studies

1. Financial Certification Form

This form should be completed to demonstrate that you have funding available to cover the estimated cost of NDSU tuition, fees and other expenses. If you received a research or teaching assistantship, include the total amount of the stipend and tuition waiver on the appropriate lines.

2. Financial Documentation

If you did not receive an assistantship or it does not cover the entire amount of estimated costs, then you will need to submit additional supporting financial documents. Originals or certified copies of originals are required.

3. Copy of Passport \(biography page\)

4. Transfer Information Form

For students transferring from another U.S. institution, please complete Part I and ask the International Student Advisor at your current institution to complete Part II.

Forms are available at the NDSU Graduate Admissions Center. Upon receipt of the forms indicated, the NDSU Office of International Programs will process your information. If an I-20 is issued, it will be mailed by the U.S. Postal Service unless you make other arrangements. If you would like to arrange an alternate method of delivery or you have questions regarding your I-20, please contact the Office of International Programs at ndsu.international@ndsu.edu, 1-701-231-7895, or FAX: 1-701-231-1014.

If you have questions about your admission, please contact the NDSU Graduate School at 1-701-231-7033 or ndsu.grad.school@ndsu.edu.

Thank you.
